

Waiver of Liability and Agreement

In exchange for the presentation of this voucher at specified Louisiana pharmacies, the Louisiana Department of Justice agrees to provide, at no cost to the recipient agency, ten single-dose vials of Naloxone, with syringes (“product”). The recipient agency agrees, as follows:

- 1) To hold the State of Louisiana and the Louisiana Department of Justice entirely free from any liability for all injuries incurred, including death, in the administration, use, delivery or attempted administration, use or delivery of this product, including injury and/or death to the person(s) receiving the product and the person(s) administering or attempting to administer the product;
- 2) To hold the State of Louisiana and the Louisiana Department of Justice entirely free from any liability for any legal causes of action brought against the recipient agency related to the administration, use, delivery or attempted administration, use or delivery of the product;
- 3) To forfeit all rights to bring suit or any claims against the State of Louisiana and the Louisiana Department of Justice in any way related to the administration, use and delivery or the attempted administration, use or delivery of the product, including claims under the Louisiana Products Liability Act. La. R.S. 9:2800.51 et seq.;
- 4) That the State of Louisiana and the Louisiana Department of Justice are not included in the definition of the term “manufacturer” or “seller” as defined in La. R.S. 9:2800.53;
- 5) That their acceptance and use of this product from the Louisiana Department of Justice is entirely voluntary and is made with the full understanding that acceptance and subsequent use of this product, including transportation, storage, and delivery, are undertaken at the sole risk of the recipient agency; and
- 6) That the State of Louisiana and the Louisiana Department of Justice are not liable in any way whatsoever, under state or federal law for the safety, reliability, durability and performance of the product.
