Opinion Number 03-0002

Mr. John Smith
State Representative, District 30
611-B South 5th Street
Leesville, Louisiana 71446

78 OFFICERS – Dual Office Holding
Louisiana R.S. 42:63

Because the position of legislative assistant is part-time employment in this case, it would be permissible to hold both this position and at the same time the position of maintenance crew worker for a police jury on a full-time basis, as there would be no violation of La. R.S. 42:63.

Dear Mr. Smith:

Please be advised that our office is in receipt of your opinion request, which has been assigned to me for research and reply. Specifically, your request asks whether a full-time maintenance crew worker for a police jury can also serve as a part-time legislative assistant.

Louisiana R.S 42:63 sets forth the law with regard to Dual Office Holding in this state. Pertinent to your inquiry, this law states:

* * *

- E. No person holding a full-time appointive office or full-time employment in the government of this state or of a political subdivision thereof shall at the same time hold another full-time appointive office or full-time employment in the government of the state of Louisiana, in the government of a political subdivision thereof, or in a combination of these.

* * *

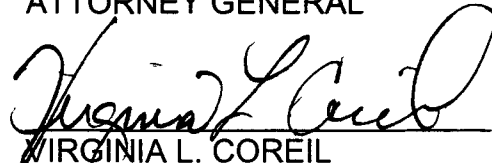

Because the position of legislative assistant is part-time employment in this case, it would be permissible to hold both this position and at the same time the position of maintenance crew worker for a police jury on a full-time basis, as there would be no violation of La. R.S. 42:63.
